December 2022

Who is Prime Super?

We're all about our members. We take the time to build relationships, offer guidance, and grow local communities, no matter the location.

Have you heard "Members first" from a super fund before? Well, we mean it. If you need to prepare for your retirement, have a quick question, or anything in between, you have a direct line to one of the team via their mobile or email. Now that's personal service.

We're here when you need us and working hard in the background when you don't.
